My dear Sir

I should feel very much obliged if you can let me know at an early date whether the Government wish to retain my services after April next. If you can [illegible] I should like to remain for one year more and to retire in April 1912. By last time I hope to see the practice and procedure in the Supreme Civil Courts of Ireland. I have some inportant drafts relating which only await the consent of the Irish Code

I am asking for the question of my Retention

to be selected and because in either case we have to make our plans for the future and this will take considerable time

Yours sincerely

Hon. Justice Ismay's term does not expire till 3 April 1911. I think Govt should not bind itself so early as this to any particular course. If no better alternative presents itself, his services may be extended for another year as requested. I think that the Hon. Judge may be informed that a reply will be given by the end of Dec^r next. This will give him 3 months' of notice, which I seems to be ample.

Mr Ismay's term expires 7 months hence and it will be satisfactory both to the Government & Mr Ismay if the question of his further retention in service is settled now or in the near future. Instead of being kept over for the last moment. In my opinion Mr Ismay may be granted an extension of one year, provided his health continues to be good. I am sure he would be the first to resign if his health should fail.

I submit herewith a letter received from Mr. Ismay, Chief Judge, asking for an early decision as to whether the Government would wish to retain his services after the expiry of his present term in April next, and stating that, if his wishes are consulted, he would like to remain for one year more and to retire in April 1912.

By order,

for Secy. to Govt.

Letter No.D.5219 dated the 19th June 1905 from the A 1st Assistant to the Resident to the Dewan of Mysore.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of Mr. Venkatavaradaiengar's letter Pol.No.887 dated the 22nd April 1905, requesting sanction to the continued employment of Mr. H. Pilkington as Inspector of Coffee Estates in Mysore to the end of May 1905.

In conveying the sanction applied for, I am to state that the Government of India have noticed the delay that has occurred in the submission of this application by the Durbar. Similar irregularities have been not infrequent in the past and the Government of India strongly deprecate the practice of anticipating their orders in cases of this kind. The Offg. Resident therefore trusts that the Durbar will be so good as to issue the necessary instructions to avoid the recurrence of such irregularities in future.

I am to suggest that a very simple method of securing this object would seem to lie in the appointment of some officer in the Secretariat to maintain a register of such employees entertained chronologically by years according to the date on which each term of appointment expires. This register should be put up about the end of September for orders as to the appointments which unless renewed will expire in the coming calendar year.
